Summer 1998

The Competition is Heating Up...

Blue and White, that is! Both teams have been fighting hard for the plaques, but everyone has left the competition on the field (and that is what we like to see). Just so you know, here's how the plaques are hanging from the Eagle's wings:

Blue: Tug O' War, Senior Volleyball and Intermediate Boomer Ball. White: Capture The Flag and Junior Hockey.

Keep up the good work! There's a whole summer of games to come! A big HOW! to both teams!

Infirmary Gab

by Aunt Jeanne and Nurse Meg

(tune: Where Have All the Flowers Gone?)

Where have all the band-aids gone?
Cuts and bruises!
Where are all the "after-bites"?
Bug bites galore!
Where is all the gatorade—helping dehydration now—
When will they ever learn?
When will they ever learn?

Aunt Jeanne and Nurse Meg want to remind everyone to always wear shoes in Camp, use bug spray when you are going to be out in the evening and drink lots of liquids throughout the day.

Remember: Today's beautiful moments are tomorrow's beautiful memories.

A Special Letter Home

by Carolyn Kerchof

Dear Family and Friends,
Here I am at Adirondack Camp having the time of my life. The water is so clear and clean. The mountains are so thick with trees. I truly love it here.

Love,
Monica Sea Louis

P.S. Write Back!

A Picture is Worth A Thousand Words...

And now your parents can order pictures of you at the Camp Store! They will receive an individual shot of you, as well as a group picture of you and your cabin. Tell you parents if they order now, they will get the photos at the end of the first session!

A Reminder to Parents...

It's not too early to begin thinking about next summer! There are over 300 families interested in next summer, and we want to make sure your child has a confirmed place for the summer. If you make your $500 deposit by November 1, 1998, we will guarantee that place. After that date, we will begin to admit campers on a "first-come first-serve" basis. Adirondack 1999 promises to be the best summer yet!
